O R D E R:

In its reference read above, the Board of Revenue has proposed that the recruitment of Probationary Revenue Inspectors be held in abeyance for a period of 5 years from 1953. The Government has examined the Board's proposal in consultation with the Madras Public Service Commission. The feel that as the aggregate of the Probationary Revenue Inspectors already recruited and awaiting inclusion in the lists of Deputy Tahsildars after completion of the prescribed training or still undergoing training is itself large, and it is not desirable to add to their number by counting the direct recruitment of Probationary Revenue Inspectors indefinitely. They accordingly direct, with the concurrence of the Commission that direct recruitment of Probationary Revenue Inspectors be suspended for a period of two years in the first instance. The orders will take effect from the selections to be made in 1953 against the vacancies of 1954, and will not apply to the recruitment on the basis of the written and oral tests already held by the Commission in 1952.

2. The Board of Revenue is requested to review the position at the end of the two years' period referred to in the first paragraph above and submit a report to the Government.

3. The Board of Revenue is requested to submit draft amendments to rule 2 in the Annexure VII to the Madras Ministerial Service Rules.
